Child Protection Policy and Policy Statement

1.1 Introduction

Children, young people, and those who are particularly vulnerable are entitled to enjoy a safe environment at social and educational organised events. Our company recognises its legal and moral duty to ensure that we provide these people with the best possible care when we are the security provider at such events.

We are dedicated to adopting and carrying out policies that ensure all security personnel understand their strict obligation to protect children from abuse or other harm. Our personnel are required to follow strict procedures created to protect children and to report any abuse or similar problems to the relevant authorities.

At both indoor and outdoor functions and events, we always strive to protect children, young people and those who are particularly vulnerable against abuse or harm. We endeavour to educate and train both employees and volunteers security personnel to carry out this policy mission and be prepared to address specific child protection issues.

All of our employees who perform security tasks are fully licensed and trained by the Security Industry Authority, government initiated regulatory body for the security industry.

The Children's Act of 1989 defines a child/young person as anyone under the age of 18. (Children's Act 1989).

1.2 Policy Statement

We believe that:

- Nothing is more important than the welfare of a child.
- Every child, regardless of gender, age, culture, ability, language, racial origin, sexual identity or religious belief and/or sexual identity is entitled to a safe and fun environment in which to pursue their religious, pleasure oriented or educational interests.
- It is our duty to protect children from degrading treatment, discrimination and other forms of harm through all possible measures. We endeavor to respect children's' feelings, wishes, and rights.
- We will take seriously and investigate thoroughly all allegations or suspicions of abuse of or poor practices aimed at children, and will promptly involve the authorities in any such incident.
- All our employees may, from time to time, interact with children while providing security services. Therefore, they are all screened and CRB checked as required by Security Industry Authority regulations. We provide all such employees with training and additional guidance concerning child protection measures to be taken. The CRB check and any screenings of employees are carried out by independent personnel not directed by the company.
- To be effective in protecting children, we must work in cooperation with event organisers, stakeholders, parents and children.

1.3 Monitoring and reviewing the policy and procedures

Child protection measures and procedures must be periodically reviewed and monitored. A regular report must be given to management concerning this by the Managing Director. The implementation of procedures should be regularly monitored and reviewed. The Managing Director should regularly report progress, challenges, difficulties, achievement gaps and areas where changes are required to Delfi Services Ltd.

This policy must be subject to overall review at least every three years or whenever the law or this organisation undergoes a major change.

Complaints Policy

We acknowledge that, no matter how hard we try to do our best, mistakes sometimes occur, and we may occasionally not give our Stakeholders, Employees or Clients the high quality of service that they properly expect from us.

We welcome, in those situations, a report that this has happened in the form of a Complaint.

When this occurs, which should be rarely, we will make every effort possible to quickly and efficiently remedy the problem, acknowledging directly our responsibility to correct errors, and doing so without compromising the rights and expectations of our Stakeholders, Employees, or Clients.

We incorporate everything we learn from addressing a Complaint to make our future quality of service better and to avoid similar problems from happening in the future.

We pledge to address Complaints:

Swiftly: A formal acknowledgement within 24 hours, If the complaint has not been resolved to send an interim response at the 3 day point, A full and final response at the 7 day point, A follow up 10 – 14 days after the final response to ensure the complainant is still happy with the resolution.

Efficiently: The Director of the business will personally take charge of the investigation of the complaint and directly communicate with the complainant to attempt to resolve the problem without delay.

Transparently: Documentation will be kept of the full results of the investigation and provided to the complaining party.

Honestly: If we have made an error or mistake, we will frankly acknowledge it. If our service was deficient in any way that was within our reasonable control, we will do our utmost to ensure that the complaining party does not suffer the consequences.

If you have a Complaint please communicate with the Delfi Services Ltd Team via Email, postal letter, fax, or telephone. Complaints can be addressed to any of our staff members.

Lone working policy

Delfi Services Ltd is committed to ensuring that all of its employees have a safe working environment. We support and encourage each of our employees to attempt to improve and maintain workplace Health and Safety.

A risk assessment of the work site will be carried out and completed before a security officer is assigned to work alone during the daytime (at an empty site) or overnight (at any site). The emphasis in such an assessment is to take all measures to protect our personnel. All site risk assessments shall be reviewed whenever site conditions are known to have changed, and, in any event, at least on an annual basis.

A security officer assigned to work alone shall be supplied with a mobile phone by the company and is required to use it every hour to make a check call to Delfi Services Ltd 24 hour Communication Centre. If a call is not received, a Customer Service Manager or a Supervisor will be sent to the work site to investigate whether the security officer is experiencing difficulties, and, if so, to assist the officer. If these persons are not available or have been sent to the site and have not called back to the control Centre, local law enforcement shall be notified and asked to investigate.

A complete list of instructions for the assignment shall be kept at the work site. Those instructions will include a description of any Safety or Health issues present and pinpoint high risk areas at the site. They will also spell out the Client's and Company's customary procedures to be followed.

Emergency phone numbers for the client's personnel (who hold keys for the site) shall be given to security officers, and also numbers for local emergency services and responders. Security officers must be fully familiar with the assignment instructions and be able to comply with them during their on-duty hours. Such instructions shall be reviewed and, if needed, amended when the Client requires, when site conditions change or, at a minimum, on an annual basis.

Media Handling Policy

Overview

Delfi Services Ltd has an excellent reputation. We are well known as providing top notch professional security services, and have strong ties with our customers, whose respect we have earned over time.

From time to time, we may receive information inquiries about our company from members of the news media. News reports about our services can assist members of the public, including our customers, potential customer, and business partners to appreciate what we do and how we serve our communities. We try to be open to media inquiries and to supply them with truthful information.

Purpose

This policy aims at ensuring that we always strive to provide relevant, truthful, timely, and complete information in response to media inquiries.

Scope

This policy is intended to apply to all personnel employed by the company.

Designation of Company Spokesperson

The Company Director is the person responsible for communicating with the media on behalf of the company.

Should any member of staff be involved in any incident or event that attracts media attention they are reminded that all communications with the media are to be authorised by the director or their appointed spokesperson. Employees are reminded that they are not authorised to make any statements on behalf of the company or client to the media nor are they permitted to answer any questions about the company or clients; any comments made by the employee are of their own expression and not those of the company or clients, and the employee must ensure that this is clearly understood by the media.

The company have elected the company Director to be the authorised spokesperson for the business and any requests for comment should be directed to the Director. Where appropriate, the Director will in association with the client prepare a joint statement, which may be communicated in a press release or through the company solicitors.

Media Communication Guidelines

If a representative of the media contacts an employee of the company, they may be seeking:

- Particular information about the company and the services that it provides.
- Information about sudden events, including legal and regulatory actions, accidents, thefts, arrests, employee or customer complaints or natural disasters.
- Comment or reaction to new developments in the security industry or concerning our services;
- Background information for more general news stories involving the communities our company serves.

Any calls from media representatives should be forwarded to corporate communications. Employees should not say that they are not permitted to speak with reporters or that they must get permission to do that. Instead, reporters should be told that the company policy is to send all media questions to the company Director.

The media representatives should be extended the same professionalism and politeness that we show to customers and other members of the public. Their inquiries should be answered with a referral to the Director quickly. This is an important part of promoting our company and its image.

Employees contacted by the media should immediately inform the Director who may ask for your assistance in preparing a response. Do not permit a media representative to pressure you to immediately respond to questions, since a considered response is always preferable and more likely to convey relevant and correct information.

Photograph and Film Guidelines

When a media representative asks to be allowed to take photos or film inside our premises or at a worksite, their request should be forwarded to the company Director. Without the Director's approval, no such permission can be granted. The Director will not give approval except after consulting with the manager of the site.

Factors to be considered in deciding whether to grant such permission includes whether it will disrupt work operations, the company has anything to gain from granting the request, the current condition and age of the facility, and whether the facility is currently clean and suitable to be pictured or filmed.

Media including camera crews may show up at our premises or a worksite, especially in a crisis situation or if some external organization or group has planned a boycott or demonstration at our premises or a worksite.

Such unannounced visits by media representatives and their camera crew should be treated professionally and politely. The Director should be notified immediately. The Director may want to contact the media representative's editor or other supervisor. They cannot be allowed to enter without permission.

Our company has no control over the taking of photos or filming outside our premises or worksites on public property, such as courtyards, walkways or public parking lots, so no employee should interfere with such activities there.

Members of the media should not be permitted to block the entrance and exit passages to our facilities or worksites or interfere with the normal conducting of business by our company and its customers.

Media representatives may be notified if our customers complain about any disruption they have caused as to access to walkways or parking lots. Employees should remain aware that anything that they say to the media may be reported in print or broadcast.

Seeking Media Coverage

When an employee has an idea about good news story to provide to the media, they should seek permission to do so from the Director, who is the only one authorized to approve seeking media coverage. Do not contact the media without getting approval. Some types of news may be appropriate only for internal company promotion, such as in an employee newsletter.

Quality Policy

The quality policy describes the fundamental principles against which we, Delfi Services Ltd, operate and which will support the achievement of our objectives, vision and values. We recognise that success in reaching our objectives depends on our ability to create real and perceived value for customers in everything we provide. We also acknowledge that we depend on the people we work with as well as our clients to achieve this.

Delfi Services Ltd aims to be recognised as a best in class provider of security services through our management team supporting our people in the delivery of customer service excellence; together with efficient and effective operational processes and an ongoing programme of training and development.

Our success will be measured through the achievement of our quality objectives. And this can best be achieved through the recruitment of highly motivated, customer focused officers, supported by our managers at all levels of the business, and by the recognition that our people are the public face of the business and significantly impact on the customer's perception of how we operate and the service we deliver. We must therefore ensure that we create an environment that makes Delfi Services Ltd a good place to work for all of our employees.

We are committed to comply with all regulatory requirements of security business and we aim to continually improve our security services and measure those at regular intervals.

This policy is a controlled document and shall be reviewed and amended, where applicable, to ensure that it remains relevant to the Company's business.

Recruitment and Selection Policy

We aim to provide equal opportunities in employment, and our recruitment and selection procedures reflect that. We correctly train our HR staff or other such members of staff who have recruitment and selection responsibilities, to ensure that they avoid unlawful discrimination, both of the conscious and the unconscious varieties.

Our policy is to hire, promote, and advance employees solely on the basis of merit. All decisions related to hiring, recruitment, promotion or advancement will be made on this basis.

From time to time, all job descriptions, if utilized, shall be reviewed and revised to make sure that they comply with our policy of equal opportunity.

When we place advertisements for job vacancies, we will take these issues into account, and they will be non-discriminatory in nature.

We are committed to providing fair treatment to each and every job applicant, and consider them only on the basis of their ability to carry out the essential functions of the job. All job interview questions must be of a nondiscriminatory nature, and only concern job requirements.

Sexual Harassment Policy

Delfi Services Ltd regards sexual harassment as a type of unacceptable misconduct that interferes with a proper employment relationship. Employees have a right to expect that their workplace and working environment will be free of any and all discrimination or conduct that is harassing, disruptive or coercive. Sexual harassment is strictly prohibited and will result in discipline, with the sanctions ranging up to and including termination.

1. Sexual Harassment Definition

Sexual harassment includes non-consensual verbal, physical, or visual sexually oriented conduct or materials, requests for sexual favors, or sexual advances. This includes anything that is objectionable or offensive to the person exposed to it, and includes, but is not limited to, sexual epithets, suggestive or derogatory slurs, gestures or comments, and offensive drawings, pictures, cartoons or posters.

Our policy is based on the legislative definition of sexual harassment. It includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature that occur under the following conditions

- When conduct of this nature constitutes either an explicit or implicit condition or term of employment (such as when it impacts promotion, training, timekeeping or overtime assignments)
- When submission to or rejection of the conduct is utilised as a factor in making employment decisions (such as for hiring, promotion, or termination)
- When the conduct interferes with an individual's work performance or results in a hostile, intimidating, or offensive work environment

Sexual harassment may also involve employee conduct that interferes unreasonably with another employee's work performance through the creation of a hostile, intimidating, or offensive workplace environment. Sexual harassment includes any behavior by employees aimed at other employees including, but not limited to, explicit or subtle pressure for sexual activity, touching or language of an inappropriate nature, asking for or demanding sexual favors, or physical assault.

2. What is excluded from the definition of sexual harassment?

Sexual harassment does not include socially acceptable occasional remarks or compliments or common friendly terms of greeting. It only encompasses unwelcome behavior, and that which interferes with work effectiveness by decreasing morale or being personally offensive.

3. Non-Employee Harassment

Our company tries to protect all of its employees from harassment by customers, vendors and other non-employees that they come into contact with.

4. Procedure for Complaints

Employees who believe that they have been subject to sexual harassment should report it right away to the company Director or any other supervisory personnel. Employees are encouraged to make such reports in writing, to create a record, but verbal complaints are also accepted and welcome. Any such complaints are taken seriously and are promptly and fully investigated. The confidentiality of the person involved and witnesses shall be protected from unneeded disclosure as long as it is possible to do so. The individuals have a right to be informed of the results of the investigation.

Under usual circumstances, the individual will be contacted by the company within five days of their complaint and informed as to what steps are being taken in response. When a direct supervisor or other superior is the perpetrator of the sexual harassment, their conduct should be reported to their supervisor or the company Director.

5. Discipline

If an employee, including a supervisor, is determined to have harassed an applicant for employment or current employee, disciplinary sanctions will be imposed which may include reprimands, suspension, or termination. Legal responsibility may also be imposed.

6. Managerial Responsibility

Managers and supervisors are charged with the responsibility of carrying out this policy with their area supervised. Sexual harassment is a violation of this policy and is also unlawful. The company acknowledges its responsibility to prevent, stop, and remedy workplace sexual harassment, to promptly investigate any complaints, and to immediately take corrective action to remedy the problem.

7. Retaliation Prohibited

The company is opposed to and will not tolerate any retaliation against an employee who themselves complains about sexual harassment or who serves as a witness in an investigation of a sexual harassment complaint.

8. Amendment of Written Policy

This policy may be amended in writing from time to time, with any new version appearing in the employee handbook. We encourage employees to review this document now and whenever it is amended.

Smoking Policy

Purpose

This policy is intended to protect all Delfi Services Ltd employees, service users, customers and visitors from second-hand tobacco smoke exposure and to comply with the Smoke-free Premises Regulations 2007.

Exposure to second-hand smoke, also known as passive smoking, increases the risk of lung cancer, heart disease and other illnesses. Ventilation or separating smokers and non-smokers within the same air space does not completely stop potentially dangerous exposure.

Policy

Smoking is prohibited throughout the entire workplace with no exceptions. This includes company vehicles. This policy applies to all employees, consultants, sub-contractors, customers.

Implementation

Overall responsibility for policy implementation and review rests with company director. All staff are obligated to adhere to, and facilitate the implementation of the policy.

The company director shall inform all existing employees, consultants and contractors of the policy and their role in the implementation and monitoring of the policy. They'll also have to give all new personnel a copy of the policy on recruitment / induction.

Appropriate 'No smoking' signs will be clearly displayed at the entrances to and within the premises.

Non-compliance

Local disciplinary procedures should be followed if a member of staff does not comply with this policy. The procedures set out on page 12 of the booklet 'Helping to get your business or organization ready for the new law on smoking' should be followed if a customer, visitor or passenger does not comply. Those who do not comply with the smoking law are also liable to a fixed penalty fine and possible criminal prosecution.

Help to Stop Smoking

Support for smokers who want to stop will be provided. Sources of support are: Smoke line 0800848484, the Public Health Department of your local NHS Board, or your local GP surgery. Contact details can be found in your local directory.

Vehicles

All work vehicles must be kept e smoke-free always except if only the same person ever uses them and never carries passengers.

Employer Duties

- We display No Smoking Signs as legally required.
- We make sure that to ensure employees, customers and visitors do not smoke in our workplaces or vehicles.
- We look into and promptly investigate complaints about employees, customers or visitors smoking.
- We train, inform and consult employees concerning this policy.

Enforcement of this Policy

Failure to comply with this policy will be dealt with through the company's disciplinary procedures. Visitors or members of the public who breach the policy will be asked to stop smoking and will be asked to leave the premises if they fail to comply with this request. All breaches of this policy will be recorded in writing by the organisation. Be aware that, in addition to action taken under this policy, the local council may take legal action against individuals who smoke in Smoke-free places or vehicles.

Violence at Work

Delfi Services Ltd employees who come into contact with the public may encounter violent or aggressive behavior. At times, members of the public may attack, Or threaten them either physically or verbally.

The Health and Safety Executives define violence as “Any incidence, in which an employee is abused, threatened or assaulted by a member of the public in circumstances arising out of the course of his or her employment”.

The most common type of incident our employees typically encounter involves verbal abuse and threats. Physical attacks occur less frequently. In addition to the use of unlawful physical force against a person, violence may also involve the uttering of verbal abuse and threats (whether with or without a weapon), rude innuendoes or gestures, and racial/ sexual harassment.

Violence of any kind can cause significant emotional stress even when there is not a physical injury. A risk of physical injury may be implied by threats. Those who damage an employee’s personal property and belongings can also instill fear of future physical attack and thereby cause emotional distress and stress.

Statement

As an employer, we will spare no reasonable effort and precautions needed to protect our employees’ safety and health at work and to help prevent aggression and violence of all kinds.

Employees, who are assaulted, threatened, or who have suffered verbal abuse while working will receive all possible support and assistance by the company, including efforts to protect them while working on our clients’ premises.

Reporting of Incidents

We have an: “Incident Report form” which will be available on site or electronically , which employees and managers should use to report any incidence of violence, aggression, threats or verbal abuse at work whenever and wherever it occurs. Reporting such incidents is legally required under the Reporting of Injuries, Diseases, and Dangerous Occurrences Regulation’s 2013 (RIDDOR).

Waste and Recycling Policy

Delfi Services Ltd believes in promoting sustainability through prudent waste management and recycling. We attempt to lower our use of materials, reuse materials when we can, and attempt to recycle materials and utilise recycled materials whenever possible. We keep these principles in mind in managing office products, including paper and electronic equipment including computers, plastic, glass, cans, and batteries.

To carry out these goals, we educate and inform our staff about policies and issues, and make recycling receptacles available on our premises. We use suppliers, whenever possible, who will aid in collecting and recycling used products that they have supplied, and always seek waste reduction, waste recycling and waste minimization information from suppliers and vendors that we use.

Social Media Policy

This policy provides guidance for employee use of social media, which should be broadly understood for purposes of this policy to include blogs, wikis, micro blogs, message board chat rooms, electronic newsletters, online forums, social networking sites, and other sites and services that permit users to share information with others in a contemporaneous manner. The following principles apply to professional use of social media on behalf of Delfi Services Ltd as well as personal use of social media when referencing Delfi Services Ltd:

- Employees need to know and adhere to the Company's Code of Conduct, Employee Handbook, and other company policies when using social media reference to Delfi Services Ltd.
- Employees should be aware of the effect their actions may have on their images, as well as Delfi Services Ltd image / reputation. The information that employees post or publish may be public information for a long time.
- Employees should be aware that Delfi Services Ltd may observe content and information made available by employees through social media. Employees should use their best judgement in posting material to ensure that it is neither inappropriate nor harmful to Delfi Services Ltd, its employees, or customers.
- Although not an exclusive list, some specific examples of prohibited social media conduct includes posting commentary, content, or images that are defamatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, libellous, or that could potentially create a hostile work environment.
- Employees are not to publish post or release any information that is considered confidential or not public. If there are questions about what is considered confidential, employees should always check with the Human Resources Department and/or supervisor.
- Social media networks, blogs and other types of online content sometimes generate press and media attention or legal questions. Employees should refer these inquiries to authorized Delfi Services Ltd spokes persons.

- If employees find or encounter a situation while using social media that threatens to become antagonistic, employees should disengage from the dialogue in a polite manner and seek the advice of a supervisor.
- Employees should get appropriate permission before you refer to or post images of current or former employees, members, vendors or suppliers. Additionally, employees should get appropriate permission to use a third party's copyrights, copyrighted material, trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property.
- Social media use shouldn't interfere with employee's responsibilities at Delfi Services Ltd. Delfi Services Ltd Computer systems are to be used for business purposes only. When using Delfi Services Ltd computer systems, use of social media for business purposes is allowed (ex: Facebook, Twitter, Delfi Services Ltd blogs and LinkedIn), but personal use of social media networks or personal blogging of online content is discouraged and could result in disciplinary action.
- It is highly recommended that employees keep Delfi Services Ltd related social media accounts separate from personal accounts, if practical.

ANTI- CORRUPTION AND BRIBERY POLICY

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to establish controls to ensure compliance with all applicable anti-bribery and corruption regulations, and to ensure that the Company's business is conducted in a socially responsible manner.

2. Policy statement

Bribery is the offering, promising, giving, accepting or soliciting of an advantage as an inducement for action which is illegal or a breach of trust. A bribe is an inducement or reward offered, promised or provided in order to gain any commercial, contractual, regulatory or personal advantage.

It is our policy to conduct all of our business in an honest and ethical manner. We take a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption. We are committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships wherever we operate and implementing and enforcing effective systems to counter bribery.

We will uphold all laws relevant to countering bribery and corruption in all the jurisdictions in which we operate. However, we remain bound by the laws of the UK, including the Bribery Act 2010, in respect of our conduct both at home and abroad.

Bribery and corruption are punishable for individuals by up to ten years' imprisonment and a fine. If we are found to have taken part in corruption, we could face an unlimited fine, be excluded from tendering for public contracts and face damage to our reputation. We therefore take our legal responsibilities very seriously.

3. Scope

3.1 Who is covered by the policy?

In this policy, third party means any individual or organisation you come into contact with during the course of your work for us, and includes actual and potential clients, customers, suppliers, distributors, business contacts, agents, advisers, and government and public bodies, including their advisors, representatives and officials, politicians and political parties.

This policy applies to all individuals working at all levels and grades, including senior managers, officers, directors, employees (whether permanent, fixed-term or temporary), consultants, contractors, trainees, seconded staff, home workers, casual workers and agency staff, volunteers, interns, agents, sponsors, or any other person associated with us, or any of our subsidiaries or their employees, wherever located (collectively referred to as employees in this policy). This policy covers:

Bribes;
Gifts and hospitality;
Facilitation payments;
Political contributions;
Charitable contributions.

3.2 Bribes

Employees must not engage in any form of bribery, either directly or through any third party (such as an agent or distributor). Specifically, employees must not bribe a foreign public official anywhere in the world.

3.3 Gifts and hospitality

Employees must not offer or give any gift or hospitality:

which could be regarded as illegal or improper, or which violates the recipient's policies; or
to any public employee or government officials or representatives, or politicians or political parties.

Employees may not accept any gift or hospitality from our business partners if: there is any suggestion that a return favour will be expected or implied.

Where a manager's approval is required above, if the manager is below Director level then approval must be sought from an appropriate Director.

If it is not appropriate to decline the offer of a gift, the gift may be accepted, provided it is then declared to the employee's manager and donated to charity.

We appreciate that the practice of giving business gifts varies between countries and regions and what may be normal and acceptable in one region may not be in another. The test to be applied is whether in all the circumstances the gift or hospitality is reasonable and justifiable. The intention behind the gift should always be considered.

Within these parameters, local management may define specific guidelines and policies to reflect local professional and industry standards. Where this policy requires written approval to be given, the Company Secretary shall put in place a process to maintain a register of all such approvals.

3.4 Facilitation payments and kickbacks

Facilitation payments are a form of bribery made for the purpose of expediting or facilitating the performance of a public official for a routine governmental action, and not to obtain or retain business or any improper business advantage. Facilitation payments tend to be demanded by low level officials to obtain a level of service which one would normally be entitled to.

Our strict policy is that facilitation payments must not be paid. We recognise, however, that our employees may be faced with situations where there is a risk to the personal security of an employee or his/her family and where a facilitation payment is unavoidable, in which case the following steps must be taken:

- Keep any amount to the minimum;
- Create a record concerning the payment; and
- Report it to your line manager.

In order to achieve our aim of not making any facilitation payments, each business of the Company will keep a record of all payments made, which must be reported to the Company Secretary/Account department, in order to evaluate the business risk and to develop a strategy to minimise such payments in the future.

3.5 Political Contributions

We do not make donations, whether in cash or kind, in support of any political parties or candidates, as this can be perceived as an attempt to gain an improper business advantage.

3.6 Charitable contributions

Charitable support and donations are acceptable (and indeed are encouraged), whether of in-kind services, knowledge, time, or direct financial contributions. However, employees must be careful to ensure that charitable contributions are not used as a scheme to conceal bribery. We only make charitable donations that are legal and ethical under local laws and practices]. No donation must be offered or made without the prior approval of your line manager.

All charitable contributions should be publicly disclosed.

4. Your responsibilities

You must ensure that you read, understand and comply with this policy.

The prevention, detection and reporting of bribery and other forms of corruption are the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control. All employees are required to avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of this policy.

You must notify your manager OR the Company Secretary or the confidential helpline as soon as possible if you believe or suspect that a conflict with or breach of this policy has occurred, or may occur in the future.

Any employee who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for gross misconduct. We reserve our right to terminate our contractual relationship with other workers if they breach this policy.

5. Record-keeping

We must keep financial records and have appropriate internal controls in place which will evidence the business reason for making payments to third parties.

You must declare and keep a written record of all hospitality or gifts accepted or offered, which will be subject to managerial review.

You must ensure all expenses claims relating to hospitality, gifts or expenses incurred to third parties are submitted in accordance with our expenses policy and specifically record the reason for the expenditure.

All accounts, invoices, memoranda and other documents and records relating to dealings with third parties, such as clients, suppliers and business contacts, should be prepared and maintained with strict accuracy and completeness. No accounts must be kept "off-book" to facilitate or conceal improper payments.

6. How to raise a concern

You are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of malpractice at the earliest possible stage. If you are unsure whether a particular act constitutes bribery or corruption, or if you have any other queries or concerns, these should be raised with your line manager OR the Company Secretary or through the confidential helpline.

7. What to do if you are a victim of bribery or corruption

It is important that you tell the Company Secretary / Company head office, Accounts Dept. or the confidential helpline as soon as possible if you are offered a bribe by a third party, are asked to make one, suspect that this may happen in the future, or believe that you are a victim of another form of unlawful activity.

8. Protection

Employees who refuse to accept or offer a bribe, or those who raise concerns or report another's wrong doing, are sometimes worried about possible repercussions. We aim to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.

We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of refusing to take part in bribery or corruption, or because of reporting in good faith their suspicion that an actual or potential bribery or other corruption offence has taken place, or may take place in the future. Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats or other unfavourable treatment connected with raising a concern. If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform your line manager immediately. If the matter is not remedied, and you are an employee, you should raise it formally using the company's Grievance Procedure.

9. Training and communication

Training on this policy forms part of the induction process for all new employees. All existing employees will receive regular, relevant training on how to implement and adhere to this policy. In addition, all employees will be asked to formally accept conformance to this policy on an annual basis.

Our zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption must be communicated to all suppliers, contractors and business partners at the outset of our business relationship with them and as appropriate thereafter.

10. Who is responsible for the policy?

The board of directors has overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with our legal and ethical obligations, and that all those under our control comply with it.

The Company Secretary has primary and day-to-day responsibility for implementing this policy, and for monitoring its use and effectiveness and dealing with any queries on its interpretation. Management at all levels are responsible for ensuring those reporting to them are made aware of and understand this policy and are given adequate and regular training on it.

11. Monitoring and review

The Company Secretary will monitor the effectiveness and review the implementation of this policy, regularly considering its suitability, adequacy and effectiveness. Any improvements identified will be made as soon as possible. Internal control systems and procedures will be subject to regular audits to provide assurance that they are effective in countering bribery and corruption.

All employees are responsible for the success of this policy and should ensure they use it to disclose any suspected danger or wrong doing.

Employees are invited to comment on this policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved. Comments, suggestions and queries should be addressed to the Company Secretary.

This policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment and it may be amended at any time.

Business Ethics Policy

The Delfi Services Ltd believes that it is important for the Delfi Services Ltd and its employees to maintain high ethical standards in order to preserve its reputation in the marketplace.

Good ethics are important to ensure that the Delfi Services Ltd meets not only its objectives in a fair and equitable manner but its wider social responsibilities externally. In addition, the Delfi Services Ltd is committed to ensuring high ethical standards within the workplace.

The procedure that follows provides general guidance on ethics and refers to other policies of the Delfi Services Ltd where necessary. The procedure will be closely monitored and will be developed as necessary to ensure that it meets the needs of the Delfi Services Ltd, its employees and its stakeholders.

We will ensure that the Delfi Services Ltd is meeting its aims with regard to social impact and ethical behavior and that its stakeholders perceive the Delfi Services Ltd in a positive light.

Procedure

1. All employees will be provided with ethics training as part of the induction program. Ongoing ethics training, as the ethics policy and procedure develops, will be cascaded to employees via management.
2. All employees are required to adhere to the Delfi Services Ltd's policy and procedure on business ethics. Employees who breach the Delfi Services Ltd's policy on business ethics will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.
3. Employees who are faced with a potential breach of the business ethics code or have doubts about an ethical choice they are facing should, in the first instance, speak to their line manager.
4. The Delfi Services Ltd has a Code of Conduct which employees are expected to abide by. A copy of the Code of Conduct and other policies relevant to this procedure are available on in the Staff Handbook

5. The following areas are included in this procedure. However, this list is not exhaustive and will be developed as required.
 1. Data protection/Access to employee data.
 2. Whistleblowing.
 3. The giving and receiving of gifts.
 4. Confidentiality.
 5. Relationships with competitors, suppliers, advertisers, etc.
 6. Equal opportunities, discrimination and harassment.
 7. Moonlighting.
 8. The environment.
6. The Data Protection Act 1998 requires that eight data protection principles be followed. These data protection principles are set out in the Delfi Services Ltd's Data Protection/Access to Employee Data policy and all employees are expected to familiarise themselves with its requirements. Employees should ensure that they understand how data protection impacts on their particular role, in particular with regard to external suppliers and customers. Employees who have any questions on the Delfi Services Ltd's Data Protection/Access to Employee Data policy should speak to their manager in the first instance.
7. The Delfi Services Ltd encourages a free and open culture in its dealings between its officers, employees and all people with whom it engages in business and legal relations. The Delfi Services Ltd recognises that effective and honest communication is essential if malpractice is to be effectively dealt with and the Delfi Services Ltd 's success ensured.
8. The Delfi Services Ltd does not believe that the giving and receiving of gifts from suppliers and customers is appropriate. In certain circumstances gifts may constitute a bribe. An employee who receives a gift from a customer or supplier, regardless of its value, must inform his or her manager who will decide whether the gift may be kept by the employee or whether it should be returned.
9. A confidentiality clause forms part of all employees' statement of particulars/contracts of employment. During the course of employment employees will have access to information of a confidential and sensitive nature. 10. The Delfi Services Ltd recognises that work may result in friendships and closer relationships developing. Relationships may develop not only with colleagues but suppliers and customers. It is natural for relationships to develop in a working environment. While the Delfi Services Ltd has every respect for the privacy of its employees, it asks that all employees consider the impact that personal relationships can have on the Delfi Services Ltd.
11. The Delfi Services Ltd is committed to equality of opportunity and diversity in the workplace. It is the Delfi Services Ltd's policy to treat all job applicants and employees fairly and equally, regardless of their sex, trans-gender status, age, sexual orientation, religion or belief, marital status, civil partnership status, race, colour, nationality, national origins, ethnic origin or disability. Furthermore, the Delfi Services Ltd will monitor the composition of the workforce and introduce positive action if it appears that this policy is not fully effective. Employees are required to conduct themselves in a way that promotes equal opportunities at all times. Good practice will be promoted by senior management and employees will be provided with relevant training. Employees who feel they have been discriminated against or suffered harassment should speak to a member of management immediately.
12. Employees may seek to take up separate employment with another employer or pursue outside business interests while still remaining employed by the Delfi Services Ltd. Although the Delfi Services Ltd has no desire to unreasonably restrict an employee's external activities, it must seek to protect its own interests and those of all its employees. Employees will not be permitted to undertake business activities or other work where the Delfi Services Ltd considers that this is incompatible with its interests and, in any event, unless employees have obtained prior written authorisation from senior management.
13. The Delfi Services Ltd is committed to conserving the Earth's resources and to do what it can to reduce any negative effects it has on the environment. Employees are required to use the Delfi Services Ltd's equipment and materials wisely and reduce wastage where possible. Employees can play a positive role in helping the environment by recycling all non-confidential waste, using printers and photocopiers with care and switching off electrical equipment which is not in use.
